

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Committee Appointed for Raising Funds for National Masonic Memorial Temple.

Alexandria, Va., March 12.—The work of raising funds for the proposed National Masonic Memorial Temple, which is proposed to erect in this city to Washington National Masonic Memorial Association, has begun in earnest. A committee of representative members of the order having been appointed to solicit funds for that purpose by Gen. Thomas J. Shroyer, grand master of Masons of Maryland, and president of the National Memorial Association. The committee as announced to-day by Charles H. Callahan, of this city, who is secretary of the association, follows: Clarence F. King, P. H. Treat, William B. McKinley, John H. Cowles, past grand master, representing A. S. R. Kentucky; J. Claude Kiefer, past grand master, District of Columbia; W. L. Andrews, grand master, Virginia.

These, with Gen. Shroyer, James M. Lamberton, senior grand deacon, Pennsylvania, and Judge R. T. Duke, of Virginia, will serve as an executive committee.

The work of collecting funds will begin at once. The proposed temple will cost approximately $1,000,000, and contributions will be solicited from every part of the country.

This association was organized in Alexandria only a few years ago, and the idea is to erect a temple dedicated to the memory of Washington, he being the first master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, where can be stored the private Masonic relics now in possession of the lodge which money cannot buy. Since its organization here a few years ago the association holds its annual meetings in this city February 2 and 3.

"The value of a high school to a community" was the subject of an address delivered by Prof. Charles G. Maples, professor of secondary education of the University of Virginia, and also inspector of State high schools, to-night before the members of the Teachers' Association, at a meeting held in the Young People's Building, at 11 o'clock. Prof. Maples related the many values of the high school to the community where it existed. He was introduced by Capt. W. H. Swenney, superintendent of schools of this city. H. J. Kremer, of Alexandria County, gave two violin selections, with Miss Pearl Covi as accompanist. A piano solo was given by Miss May Ficklin.

The delegation from the chamber of commerce, which will to-morrow attend the meeting in Richmond in the interest of the proposed Quebec-Miami highway, will be accompanied, following the recommendation of that organization, by a committee consisting of the following: J. M. Duncan, C. S. T. Burke, J. Y. Williams, and J. T. Preston. A committee from Occoquan appeared before the former organization yesterday and discussed the route. Those present included the following: Norman Gibbs, C. I. Whitaker, F. H. Wilkinson, Lindsey Dawson, E. L. Cockrell, C. A. Thompson, and W. F. P. Reed.

Capt. William R. Taylor, one of the best-known tugboat captains in the city and one of the oldest rivermen in point of service, died suddenly at an early hour this morning at the residence of his son, William P. Taylor, 615 King street. Apoplexy was the cause of death. Capt. Taylor was engaged in the river business practically all of his life, up to a short time ago. Recently he had been employed by W. A. Smith & Co. He was seventy-three years old and besides his wife leaves the following children: Mrs. J. H. Taylor, Norfolk, Va.; William P. Taylor, this city; John Taylor, Altoona, Pa.; Mrs. J. Albert Densel, this city; and Mrs. Charles Morgan, Altoona, Pa. The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock Friday morning from his late residence.

The body of Mrs. Lida Thernhill, who died yesterday at the residence of her cousin, James Spicer, 127 King street, will be sent to Culpeper, Va., her former home, for burial to-morrow.

Very Rev. A. P. Doyle, C. S. P. of the Apostolic Mission House, Brookland, D. C., to-night preached a sermon before a large congregation at the Lenton services held at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Among those in attendance were a number of non-Catholics.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

GUARANTEE TO CURE ECZEMA

TO STAY CURED

It is also called

SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD,

TETTER, ITCH, WEEPING,

SKIN, MILK CRUST, PRURITUS—these are different names, but all mean one thing—ECZEMA.

I prove every word that I have said—I give to every sufferer

A FREE TRIAL

Don't miss this chance for a cure

if you are suffering from ECZEMA. You can only be cured by removing the cause. What is the cause?

It is the blood. How do you know? Try the blood of the ACID.

My treatment is avoiding—relieve the dreadful itching at once and cure the disease entirely. You have to take treatment for months and months. ONLY ONE CASE IN

100 needs the treatment—ONE IN FIFTY needs the third-kind of that!

What Eczema is

Eczema is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and is a disease of the blood and affects all parts of the body. It is caused by the blood being impure, and

COMING TO THE THEATERS

Belasco—Comet of the East.

The famous English beauty, philanthropist, and socialist, the Countess of Warwick, will deliver one of her lectures at the Belasco Theater, to-morrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The lecture selected for Washington will perhaps prove one of her most generally interesting ones, and is entitled "Personal Recollections of famous people," than whom no one is better equipped to discuss than this peerless court favorite and social leader of Great Britain. Lady Warwick, who only arrived in this country last Saturday, has come to Washington to deliver many philanthropic lectures, which include a visit to the National Theatre, and a visit to the National Theatre, and a visit to the National Theatre.

A play entitled "The Tompkins Hired Man" will be given Tuesday night at the Del Ray schoolhouse by Del Ray talent. Proceeds will be for the benefit of the Methodist and Baptist churches at Del Ray.

A special meeting of the town council of Potomac, Alexandria County, will be held at 8 o'clock to-morrow night.

A business meeting of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus, was held at St. Mary's Hall to-night, following the Lenten services of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Rev. G. A. Lattrell, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, to-night delivered a sermon, entitled "A most vital topic." The men of the congregation sang at the services.

Members of the Belasco Fire Engine Company to-night enjoyed an oyster roast at the company's house.

DEVICES $300 FOR MEMORIAL.

The Washington Hebrew Congregation is named as the beneficiary of $300 in the will of Mrs. Theresa Michaelis, filed for probate yesterday. The condition is made, however, that the names of her husband, of her daughter Hannah, and her own name be engraved upon the memorial tablet under the perpetual lamp in the temple and that prayer be said once a year.

To her daughter, Josie Kohner, is given $1,000; to each grandchild, Maurice and Julia Kohner, $100 each, and $50 each to two sisters of her deceased husband, Gertrude and Josephine Kohner. The estate is divided among the children, and the rest of the estate is to go to the children, Josie Kohner and Gertrude Kohner. The will is dated June 15, 1906.

Austin Gives Lecture To-night. "The ocean and its inhabitants" will be the subject of an illustrated lecture by O. P. Austin, of the Bureau of Statistics, in Carroll Hall to-night. The lecture will be the third of a series being given by the management of Carroll Hall.

The delegation from the chamber of commerce, which will to-morrow attend the meeting in Richmond in the interest of the proposed Quebec-Miami highway, will be accompanied, following the recommendation of that organization, by a committee consisting of the following: J. M. Duncan, C. S. T. Burke, J. Y. Williams, and J. T. Preston. A committee from Occoquan appeared before the former organization yesterday and discussed the route. Those present included the following: Norman Gibbs, C. I. Whitaker, F. H. Wilkinson, Lindsey Dawson, E. L. Cockrell, C. A. Thompson, and W. F. P. Reed.

Capt. William R. Taylor, one of the best-known tugboat captains in the city and one of the oldest rivermen in point of service, died suddenly at an early hour this morning at the residence of his son, William P. Taylor, 615 King street. Apoplexy was the cause of death. Capt. Taylor was engaged in the river business practically all of his life, up to a short time ago. Recently he had been employed by W. A. Smith & Co. He was seventy-three years old and besides his wife leaves the following children: Mrs. J. H. Taylor, Norfolk, Va.; William P. Taylor, this city; John Taylor, Altoona, Pa.; Mrs. J. Albert Densel, this city; and Mrs. Charles Morgan, Altoona, Pa. The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock Friday morning from his late residence.

The body of Mrs. Lida Thernhill, who died yesterday at the residence of her cousin, James Spicer, 127 King street, will be sent to Culpeper, Va., her former home, for burial to-morrow.

Very Rev. A. P. Doyle, C. S. P. of the Apostolic Mission House, Brookland, D. C., to-night preached a sermon before a large congregation at the Lenton services held at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Among those in attendance were a number of non-Catholics.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

COMING TO THE THEATERS

Belasco—Comet of the East.

The famous English beauty, philanthropist, and socialist, the Countess of Warwick, will deliver one of her lectures at the Belasco Theater, to-morrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The lecture selected for Washington will perhaps prove one of her most generally interesting ones, and is entitled "Personal Recollections of famous people," than whom no one is better equipped to discuss than this peerless court favorite and social leader of Great Britain. Lady Warwick, who only arrived in this country last Saturday, has come to Washington to deliver many philanthropic lectures, which include a visit to the National Theatre, and a visit to the National Theatre, and a visit to the National Theatre.

A play entitled "The Tompkins Hired Man" will be given Tuesday night at the Del Ray schoolhouse by Del Ray talent. Proceeds will be for the benefit of the Methodist and Baptist churches at Del Ray.

A special meeting of the town council of Potomac, Alexandria County, will be held at 8 o'clock to-morrow night.

A business meeting of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus, was held at St. Mary's Hall to-night, following the Lenten services of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Rev. G. A. Lattrell, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, to-night delivered a sermon, entitled "A most vital topic." The men of the congregation sang at the services.

Members of the Belasco Fire Engine Company to-night enjoyed an oyster roast at the company's house.

Members of the Belasco Fire Engine Company to-night enjoyed an oyster roast at the company's house.

DEVICES $300 FOR MEMORIAL.

The Washington Hebrew Congregation is named as the beneficiary of $300 in the will of Mrs. Theresa Michaelis, filed for probate yesterday. The condition is made, however, that the names of her husband, of her daughter Hannah, and her own name be engraved upon the memorial tablet under the perpetual lamp in the temple and that prayer be said once a year.

To her daughter, Josie Kohner, is given $1,000; to each grandchild, Maurice and Julia Kohner, $100 each, and $50 each to two sisters of her deceased husband, Gertrude and Josephine Kohner. The estate is divided among the children, and the rest of the estate is to go to the children, Josie Kohner and Gertrude Kohner. The will is dated June 15, 1906.

Austin Gives Lecture To-night. "The ocean and its inhabitants" will be the subject of an illustrated lecture by O. P. Austin, of the Bureau of Statistics, in Carroll Hall to-night. The lecture will be the third of a series being given by the management of Carroll Hall.

The delegation from the chamber of commerce, which will to-morrow attend the meeting in Richmond in the interest of the proposed Quebec-Miami highway, will be accompanied, following the recommendation of that organization, by a committee consisting of the following: J. M. Duncan, C. S. T. Burke, J. Y. Williams, and J. T. Preston. A committee from Occoquan appeared before the former organization yesterday and discussed the route. Those present included the following: Norman Gibbs, C. I. Whitaker, F. H. Wilkinson, Lindsey Dawson, E. L. Cockrell, C. A. Thompson, and W. F. P. Reed.

Capt. William R. Taylor, one of the best-known tugboat captains in the city and one of the oldest rivermen in point of service, died suddenly at an early hour this morning at the residence of his son, William P. Taylor, 615 King street. Apoplexy was the cause of death. Capt. Taylor was engaged in the river business practically all of his life, up to a short time ago. Recently he had been employed by W. A. Smith & Co. He was seventy-three years old and besides his wife leaves the following children: Mrs. J. H. Taylor, Norfolk, Va.; William P. Taylor, this city; John Taylor, Altoona, Pa.; Mrs. J. Albert Densel, this city; and Mrs. Charles Morgan, Altoona, Pa. The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock Friday morning from his late residence.

The body of Mrs. Lida Thernhill, who died yesterday at the residence of her cousin, James Spicer, 127 King street, will be sent to Culpeper, Va., her former home, for burial to-morrow.

Very Rev. A. P. Doyle, C. S. P. of the Apostolic Mission House, Brookland, D. C., to-night preached a sermon before a large congregation at the Lenton services held at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Among those in attendance were a number of non-Catholics.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.

Needs of conveyance for two two-story brick houses on the north side of King street, near Potomac river, to be sold on credit to-day in the Corporation Court from Frederick Schuler and others.